

1. Identify the key skills that can best help you achieve better and faster results. Then highlight those where you have special talents. Among that group, focus even further on those that you enjoy. Use the following diagram to find the overlap among skills, talents, and enjoyment, and focus on them. This is the key to unlocking your personal potential.

